VAN WATKINS BIO

Van brings over 20 years of experience in Business Sales, Mergers & Acquisitions to Paladin Group, focusing on Service, Distribution, Manufacturing and Real Estate Brokerage companies with between $1 million and $20 million in gross annual sales. He is a past President of the Georgia Association of Business Brokers and is a Lifetime Member of the “GABB Million Dollar Club.”

Though he primarily represents Sellers in strategic M&A transactions, Van is often retained to assist business entities and high net-worth individuals with the strategic purchase of companies. By virtue of his experience in the Business Acquisitions and Real Estate Franchise Sales Industries, he offers invaluable confidential services to his Clients related to market valuations, contract negotiations, brokerage services, business & financial analysis and consulting.

Van and his wife, Marsha, are residents of Huntsville. They have five children and four grandchildren and are active in their church, as well as missions efforts throughout the world. Van is a proud graduate of the University of Alabama.
